

Elements

Blue+White

A new look at the perennially chic color combination

BY LIZA GRANT SMITH

THE BOLD TABLE The Bleus d'Ailleurs porcelain collection from Hermès is inspired by journeys between Europe and the Orient. Hermès, Palm Beach (561-655-6655, hermes.com)

DANIEL NEWCOMB

ON HIGHER GROUND

West Palm Beach interior designer Lisa Erdmann decorated this room infused with antiques for the American Red Cross Designer Showhouse in 2011. "The blue and patterned pair of tall vintage dome-lidded jars from Morocco combined with the Jacobean-style antique oak hutch from Elephant's Foot on Antique Row are focal points," Erdmann says. "Like a well-traveled person, this room has a story to tell." Lisa Erdmann and Associates, West Palm Beach (561-833-9009, lisaerdmann.com)

TILE STYLE Casa Ceramica's Lima Blue tiles ($36 per 6x6-inch tile) are handmade with lava from Sicily. Casa Ceramica, West Palm Beach (561-659-1678, casaceramica.com)

WILD AT HEART Release Sam Moore's Cadence chair ($999), with its cobalt blue zebra print, into your natural habitat. Baer's Furniture, multiple locations (baers.com)

A Passion for Blue & White

THE DEFINITIVE TOME

A Passion for Blue & White by Carolyn Roehm (Potter Style, $60) is an in-depth and visually stimulating cheat sheet of everything the color combination has to offer. Barnes & Noble locations (barnesandnoble.com)

FRONT RUNNER Treat your table to an elegant aquatic adventure with a block-print fish table runner ($56) from Virgin Islands-based Isola Bella. Norcross Patio and Gift, West Palm Beach (561-547-4769)

COLOR ... CANNOT BE ISOLATED. EVERY COLOR IS ONLY EVER SEEN IN JUXTAPOSITION WITH OTHER ONES.

—JOHN SALADINO, INTERIOR DESIGNER